about Loop

Loop Enterprise Inc. was founded in March 1995 in response to the IT industry demand for a single-point solution provider who understands workflow. Loop's team of professionals focus on implementing hardware/software solutions that increase productivity and minimize downtime and cover all technologies, from networking and server infrastructure to overall workflow.

Over the years, Loop has expanded its product and service offerings and continues to do so today in order to proactively respond to client needs, providing them with products and services that ensure optimal and uninterrupted levels of productivity.

Loop also specializes in customized training for software applications and has several certified trainers on staff as well as a network of training partners. Training needs are assessed on a client by client basis and the content and format of each training session is developed to address the client's specific requirements.

Loop is not only an IT product and service provider, Loop is an IT partner who strives to deliver a personalized service to each and every client and become part of the client's ongoing success.
